BONNET AND CAP RIBBONS.

THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand the largest assortment of Bonnet and Cap Ribbons to be found in the city, the second foor of his establishment being devoted entirely to that purpose. Many of the styles are of his own getting up, and imported exclusively for his own trade. To those who have never examined his stock he would say, "call before you purchase." As ribbons are an article of facey, all who have dealt in them know that if they have the right styles and at the right prices, sales are readily made. By that purpose. Many of the styles are of his own getting up, and imported exclusively for his own trails. To those who have never examined his stock he would say, "call before you purchase." As ribbons are an article of fancy, at who have dealt in them know that if they have the right styles and at the right prices, sales are readily made. So pursuing this reserve he has built up the bargest cibbon trade in the city. To those who have never bought, their ribbons of the subscriber he would say, that his customers almost invariably tell him that the ribbons they get of him sell first and are the chespest they buy. The reason is the admitted fact, that his stock is selected with the best taste, and is the demonstrated to the satisfaction of any one who will call and examine it. He has also a large assortment of Milnery and other fancy slik goods, that are equally worthy the attention of the trade. The subscriber taken this occasion to say, that on any of the above named goods be cannot nor will not be undersoid. L.M. STEVENS, not MATHISH 91 Between these Pearl.
